THE BRIGAND CAPE

And the New Fairly Ubiquitous Ruche to All Its Undulations.

The old-fashioned ruche is seen on many gowns and capes and coats, and may be said to be the smart trimmings of the moment. Capes for outdoor wear are in cloth or silk broche set with collar and yoke of striped silk in black and white or other colors, and many of them very crude, others pleasing enough in such mixed stripes as blue, white and amber saxe blue, dull moss green and chestnut.

The new collar yoke has not deposed the high Medici striped collar which is often seen in bright colors on black or dark green or navy blue capes.

The Brigand shape is in high favor, though its full folds contradict the general trend of fashion—thrown back from the chest, it falls in a straight line from the neck at the back, and proves very becoming to wearers who hold themselves erect, an almost forgotten art.

The Delightful Lemon. Lemons are excellent for curing colds or allaying feverishness.

THE BEST WAY

To Save Your Child Discomfort and to Lessen Gas Bills.

To cut a child's bang and yet keep the cuttings from going into his eyes, nose and mouth, put a smooth towel around his forehead under the bang. The falling bits of hair then do not come in contact with the towel and do not irritate the child's skin.

To save money and gas, don't heat your oven before it is necessary. When your meat is cooked do not keep the gas burning until it is time to serve it. The oven will keep hot enough twenty minutes after the jets are turned off. Turn your gas low after the water has once boiled. A very low light will keep it boiling. Do not put a small saucepan on a large burning ring, as this ruins the pan, burns the contents and wastes the gas. Never leave the gas burning for a minute longer than it is wanted.

Almond Cream Squares. Put two pounds of sugar and a little less than a pint of water in a saucepan. Place the pan on the fire and stir the sugar and water until the mixture starts to boil. When it is boiling thoroughly add a little less than a half a pint of cream, stir it in, and cook until it forms a soft ball when dropped in cold water.

Take off the fire, add vanilla flavoring and stir until it looks creamy, sprinkling chopped dry blanched almonds in while stirring; then pour out on greased paper or a marble slab and cut into squares.

DRUG STORE IS ROBBED

AND CLERK WOUNDED

Two Unknown Negroes Commit Daring Hold-Up in Petersburg and Shoot Man Who Seizes Them.

The Times-Dispatch Bureau, 5 Bollingbrook Street, (Phone 1485).

Petersburg, Va., May 29.—A daring hold-up took place about 10:30 o'clock to-night, when two unknown negroes walked into the drug store of R. N. Partin, corner of High and Canal streets, and took between $25 and $30 in money and shot Garnett Peterson, the clerk, who was on duty, three times.

Little girls had entered the store to purchase a prescription filled by Peterson was at the cash register setting the day's business. The girls handed the prescription to Mr. Peterson, and he put the cash in the register on the outside and went behind the prescription counter to fill it. At this time two negroes entered the store, and the little girls saw one of them reach across the counter and take the money off the register. The oldest of the girls ran behind the prescription counter and told Peterson that the negro had taken the money.

Peterson shot at the two negroes, but they ran down the street and seized the negroes on the street, at the same time calling for assistance. One of the negroes drew a pistol and the other a knife, and they both began taking effect in his leg, one in the thigh and two in the muscles of the lower leg.

At the time of the shooting there was not a person on the streets, but the pistol shots were heard by the residents in the neighborhood, and they responded as quickly as possible, only to find Peterson lying bleeding on the street, and the two negroes rapidly running in the direction of the Seaboard Air Line Railway tracks, where they crossed West High Street, several yards from the scene of the shooting.

Taylor, of "Woodland," gave a supper and dance on Thursday evening in honor of Miss Elizabeth Carter, of Danville, whose marriage to Lieutenant Philip Carter, U. S. Army, will be a brilliant society event of next week. The decorations were very unique and attractive. Flowers were everywhere. The lawn and porch were beautifully decorated with flags and lanterns. The guests were seated at small tables on the porch. The girls' places were marked with miniature United States ships of red, white and blue, and the men had watch fobs of gold. The invited guests numbered thirty, and a few intimate friends, among them being Messrs. Bland, Schofield, Gladys Lee, Harriet James, Grace Jones and Miss Carter, Miss (Mrs.) Philip Carter, Dr. and Mrs. Hughes, Dr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Day, Messrs. Keen, Martin, Rice, Noel, Gravelly, Patton, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Riden.

Child Taken Fatal Drink. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Harrisonburg, Va., May 29.—After several hours of intense agony, Mervin Bondhusch, twenty months old, died yesterday at Rockingham Memorial Hospital from the effects of drinking a quantity of concentrated lye, which the child got hold of while playing about the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Bondhusch, near Elkton.

Reformed Church Meeting. IN ROCKINGHAM COUNTY Harrisonburg, Va., May 29.—The Virginia classes of the Reformed Church in annual session at McGaheysville, Rockingham County, and will continue until Sunday night. Delegates are present from Virginia and West Virginia, with many persons of national prominence in attendance.

Rev. L. P. Harner, of Middlebrook, Augusta County, was elected president of the classes, and Rev. J. S. Siler, of Rockingham, was elected moderator. General John E. Rorer, of Harrisonburg, delivered the historical address. General Rorer is thoroughly acquainted with the church history.

This morning, the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society was addressed by Mrs. W. R. Harris, of the General Synod, and Sunday School, of Philadelphia, general secretary, and Mrs. J. G. Rupp, of Allentown, Pennsylvania, representative of the foreign board.

Neighbor Asked For Information Which Was Promptly Disclosed and She Lost No Time in Profit- ing Thereby.

Miami, Okla.—"One of my neighbors," says Mrs. Hannah M. Turley, of this town, "came to my house last week and said: 'Mrs. Turley, what did you take to help you so quickly?' I told her it was just Cardui, the woman's tonic, and she said: 'I wish I looked as well as you do.' I told her if she would only get $5.00 worth of Cardui, and take it, she would. So she sent her husband to town to get the Cardui, and commenced taking it. She looked so pale and sick all the time, but is beginning to look better already."

As to how it helped me—I suffered for about 5 years with womanly troubles, and became so weak and nervous, and would suffer such pain every month that I thought at times I would die. Was in such condition that I couldn't do my work half of the time, and would have awful smothering spells.

My husband bought me a full treatment of Cardui (6 bottles), and I can truthfully say that after I took the last bottle I was well. Am enjoying the best of health now, and am so thankful to Cardui.

Take Cardui for your trouble. You will never regret it. Begin to-day. Ask your nearest druggist.—Adv.

SOUTH RICHMOND

EXPECT NEW PASTOR TO ARRIVE TO-MORROW

Rev. R. D. White Will Take Charge of Woodland Heights Baptist Church.

Holiday Hours Will Be Generally Observed To-Day on Southside—Citizens of Suburb Want Streets Oiled.

Rev. R. D. White, of Lynchburg, who was called a month ago by the congregation, will arrive to-morrow to take charge of the pastorate of the Woodland Heights Baptist Church. Arrangements are being made to welcome the new pastor, who will preach at both services. Mr. White will fill the pulpit made vacant by the resignation some time ago of Rev. James Buchanan, of the Associated Churches, who was pastor of the church for about a year.

Mr. White was pastor of two churches in the vicinity of Lynchburg in which he has preached for several years. He received his education in the Lynchburg College and the Louisville Seminary. He comes highly recommended, and is said to be an excellent preacher.

In Hastings Court, Part II. The suit of Clarence Garrett against the Virginia Railway and Power Company was continued yesterday in Hastings Court, Part II, until Wednesday, Thursday, June 17 and 18. Damages are asked in the sum of $5,000 for injuries sustained in an accident.

On the grounds of desertion, suit for absolute divorce was filed yesterday by Mary King against James King, her husband.

To Lay Pipe Next Week. The water supply of Woodland Heights will be made thirty-six times larger when the new twelve-inch pipe is installed, which will be done within a week. It was thought at first that there would be a delay in not being able to secure a proper main, but a suitable pipe was found in Lynchburg, and it is now en route here. Work will be started by a large force of workmen on Monday on its installation.

Observe Memorial Day. Holiday hours, in celebration of Memorial Day, will be observed by a number of the city's retail stores and banks to-day on the Southside. The school children were not benefited this year, however, on account of the holiday falling on Saturday. In Hastings Court, Part II, no cases will be tried, but the clerk's office will be open for any business to be transacted.

Want Streets Oiled. On account of the thick dust now in the air when it rains, Woodland Heights citizens will ask the county to have the streets of the suburb oiled. At a meeting of the Woodland Heights Citizens' Association, on Thursday night a committee was appointed to have the matter brought to the attention of the authorities. The Chesterfield Board of Supervisors will probably take on the question at the next regular meeting.

RELEASED FROM CHAIN GANG. NEGRO DYNAMITE HOUSE [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., May 29.—A thunderous explosion at 11:29 o'clock last night, which was heard within a radius of fifteen miles, caused widespread fear and consternation, and had the local and county police out all night. It developed to-day that a negro, Arthur Thomas, released yesterday from the chain gang, stole four sticks of dynamite from the city storage house and, impelled by jealousy of another man, blew up his one-story dwelling two miles from the city in which he believed his wife was asleep. Thomas has escaped, and has not been apprehended. Thomas's wife was spending the night with relatives when the explosion occurred. After the roar died away a hole in the ground and a few pieces of wood were all that remained of the house. The blast, telephoned to Danville for news, and the city phones were rushed for an hour by people making inquiries.
